Dear Faithful,

Lent is a time of grace given to us so that we may be converted. In other words, to turn resolutely towards God.

We spend our days thinking about ourselves, putting ourselves at the centre of our desires and seeking ourselves in all our actions.

The depths of our souls vibrate to this exquisite music of the self and remain indifferent, even hostile, to any other thought.

We are prisoners of our own poor selves, incapable of coming out of ourselves and opening ourselves to others; opening ourselves above all to the Host of our souls. And yet He never stops knocking at the door, asking us to open up to Him.

Lent consists simply in opening our souls to the divine presence, in following His law of love, in taking up our daily cross of duty of state and following Our Lord on His ascent to the Father.

Let us ask Our Lady to live at last as Christians worthy of the name, to be those who live in Her School through God, with God and for God. May God become the centre of our thoughts and desires. May we seek His Glory here below so as to meet Him without end in the hereafter.

In Christo Sacerdote et Maria,

Abbé Yves le Roux
